RECIPE OF THE MONTH

POPPY SEED CHICKEN

This is a delicious, easy to prepare casserole. To save time, you can use a rotisserie chicken from the deli department of your favorite grocery store.

- 3 cups chopped cooked chicken
- 1 can cream of chicken soup, undiluted
- 1 (16-oz.) container sour cream
- 3 teaspoons poppy seeds
- 31 round buttery crackers, crushed
- 1/4 cup butter, melted

Directions

1. Combine first 4 ingredients. Spoon mixture into lightly greased 11- x 7-inch baking dish.
2. Stir together cracker crumbs and melted butter; sprinkle evenly over casserole.
3. Bake at 350° for 35 to 40 minutes or until hot and bubbly.

Internet Problems After a Storm?

Summer time is storm time. If you experience problems with your high speed internet service after a storm or power outage, please power off your modem and your computer, then power on. If you have a router, please disconnect the router first and then the DSL or cable modem. Power on your modem. Wait a couple of minutes and turn your computer back on. Service should be restored. If not, please call our repair line - 374-4544.
