RECIPE OF THE MONTH SANTO FE CHICKEN

This was found in a cookbook which features copycat versions of recipes from famous restaurants. The following recipe is a close replica of Applebee's Sante Fe Chicken.

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 8 boneless, skinless chicken breasts | 1/2 t. pepper |
| One 8 oz. block Monterey Jack cheese | 1 stick butter, melted |
| 1 c. Italian bread crumbs | 1 T. butter |
| 1 1/2 T. grated Parmesan cheese | 1 T. all purpose flour |
| 1/2 t. salt | 1 c. milk |
| 1/2 t. ground cumin | 1 small red bell pepper seeded and diced |
| | 1 small green bell pepper seeded and diced |

Directions

Place one chicken breast between two sheets of waxed paper. Starting at the center and working to the edges, pound with a meat mallet until flat and rectangle shaped. Repeat with all chicken breasts. Cut half of the cheese block into 8 slices, grate the rest of the cheese and set aside. Wrap each flattened chicken breast around a slice of cheese, secure with wooden tooth picks. Combine the bread crumbs, parmesan cheese, salt, cumin and pepper. Roll the chicken breast bundles in the butter and then in the bread crumb mixture. Place the chicken breasts in a 13x9 inch baking dish and be careful not to crowd them. Drizzle the rest of the butter over the chicken. Refrigerate for 1 one. Preheat the oven to 400 degrees and bake the chicken for 25 to 30 minutes or until cooked through. Melt the tablespoon butter in a sauce pan, stir in the flour, whisk in the milk and bring to a simmer. Stir in the grated cheese, reduce the heat and simmer until thick, stirring. Plate the chicken and pour the sauce over the top and sprinkle with diced peppers.
