Surry Telephone Focuses on Business to Business Relations

Dobson, NC – January, 2009 Surry Telephone announced today the addition of Kini Snow as a Business Sales Representative. Ms. Snow brings an in-depth and extensive background in sales to the Surry Telephone team with over 25 years of experience in Sales. Her new role at Surry will allow her to make contact with local businesses, evaluate their telecommunication needs and then offer products and services to meet those needs at a competitive rate.

“Kini Snow is an incredible addition to our team. Her knowledge of sales and contacts within the community make her invaluable in Surry’s goal of offering our business customers the best service possible,” stated Melanie Senter, Marketing Manager Surry Telephone.

Ms. Snow is well known throughout the community having worked for fifteen years with local businesses as a sales representative for the Mt. Airy News and The Messenger Newspapers. She also holds real estate licenses in North Carolina and Virginia.

“The community focus of Surry Telephone is a incredible fit with my passion of serving Surry County,” said Kini Snow, Business Sales Representative Surry Telephone. Ms. Snow has served as a volunteer for local organizations such as Habitat for Humanity, United Fund, March of Dimes and Relay for Life. Her service to the community extends to “chair” positions for numerous committees with the Mt. Airy Chamber of Commerce.

Kini Snow attended Surry Community College and Central Piedmont in Charlotte. She holds a travel and tourism degree from the Travel Institute in Nashville, Tennessee. She is married to Mitch Snow and has two children.
